

The Mausoleum at Bowood House

Funeral of the Marquis of Lansdowne

At mid-day, on Thursday last, of the late Lord Lansdowne were consigned to their last earthly resting place, in the Mausoleum in Bowood Park. It was intended that the funeral should have been strictly private, and in accordance with the wish no invitations were issued; but several of his lordship's friends having made a special request that they might be allowed to attend, the request was acceded to, and the following noblemen and gentlemen were accordingly present:-

1st Coach. Rev. J. Duncan Mr. Cartwright Mr. Spencer Mr. Bethell

Hearse

Second Coach. Lord Kerry Lord E. Fitzmaurice Mr. Kenneth Howard Comte de Flahault

Third Coach. Honorable J. K. Howard Right Honorable J. Fitz Patrick C. H. Talbot, esq.
Colonel the Honorable P. Herbert

Fourth Coach. Honorable C. Gore Marquis of Ailesbury Lord Clanwilliam Honorable J. R. Vesey

Fifth Coach. Lord Gilford Lord Somerton Earl Digby Earl Granville

Sixth Coach. Major Baring Lord Stanley of Alderley Earl of Bessborough Honorable F. Leveson Gower

Seventh Coach. Archdeacon Harris Right Honorable R. Lowe W. S. Trench, esq.

Eighth Coach. J. T. Trench, esq. R. Franks, esq. W. Hearn, esq. Mr. Howe

The arrangements of the funeral were carried out by Mr. R. Henly, Jnr., of Calne - the same undertaker to whom the funeral of the late Marquis's father was entrusted.

Lady Lansdowne, with her sons - the present Marquis and Lord E. Fitzmaurice, and her daughter, Lady Emily Fitzmaurice, will, we understand, remain at Bowood for a short time; her ladyship's father and mother (the Count and Countess de Flahault) and the Honorable Miss Georgina Flahault (Lady Lansdowne's only sister) also remain with the Marchioness until her departure.

Devizes & Wiltshire Gazette, 19 July 1866