

Market Place, Devizes (late 18th - early 19th century)

Cox & North Dissolve Partnership

Devizes, Jan.16, 1812.

Cox and North, Linen and Woollen Drapers, &c., beg to inform their Friends and the Public, that a Dissolution of their Partnership took place on the 8th instant, by mutual consent; and return their grateful acknowledgements for the liberal encouragement received during their connection.

Jasper Cox, Linen and Woollen Draper, Hatter, Hosier, and Tea-Dealer, Market-place, Devizes, respectfully informs his Friends and the Public, that he intends carrying on the above trades in all its branches, on the old premises; where he solicits a share of their future favours and support, which will be gratefully received.

*Funerals furnished

Devizes, January, 1812.

J. North, Linen and Woollen-Draper, Hosier, Hatter, and Tea-Dealer, begs to inform his Friends, that he has removed from the late concern of Cox and North, and carries on the Business in all its branches, at his Dwelling-House, a few doors lower in the Market-place, opposite the Bear Inn, where he begs to solicit a share of the favours of his friends, assuring them every attention will be paid in procuring goods of the best qualities, and rendering them on term worthy of their notice.

* Blackmore's Patent Bolting Cloths.

N.B. An Apprentice wanted; as he will be treated as one of the family, a moderate premium will be expected.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday 20 January 1812