

Crime and Punishment

Dinton

ATTACKED & ROBBED

On Saturday, the 20th inst., about eleven o'clock in the evening, as Mr Andrews, of Dinton, approached near to the village, he was suddenly attacked by three men, who pulled him off his horse, severely beat him, and robbed him of his watch, and the silver which he had in his pocket.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday 29th August, 1836)