

Dinton

LATE MR CECIL BILLINGER

The villagers heard with regret of the death of Mr Cecil Billinger. Mr Billinger was gardener to Mr B. Philipps, of Hydes House. Although he was a newcomer to Dinton he was much respected. He always had a friendly word for all, when seen working in his garden. He was taken ill on Sunday week and he died the same day. He leaves a wife and three sons.

The funeral service took place at St. Mary's Church, Dinton. Two of the bearers were his workmates, Mr Townsend and Mr W. Wright. Family mourners were :- Mrs Billinger (wife), Roy (son), Bill and Cis (brother and sister), Clifford and Iris (brother and niece), Mrs Robinson, Mrs Wright (friends). Among others present were Mrs B. Philipps, Mr Wheeler, Miss Goodfellow, Mr Webb and Mrs H. Clark. The floral tributes included one from the Dinton Hall Youth Club.

Mrs Billinger and family wish to thank all friends for their sympathy and floral tributes sent.
