

Obituary

Dinton

REV. CHARLES HUMPHREY CHOLMELEY

The death is announced of the REV. CHARLES HUMPHREY CHOLMELEY, rector of Beaconsfield. He was formerly a Fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford, where he took his degree in 1851. In 1858 he was appointed perpetual curate of Horspath, Oxon, and was successively rector of Sherborne St. John, Hants, and vicar of Dinton, Wilts. In 1882 he was appointed to a prebendal stall in Salisbury Cathedral, and in 1885 to the rectory of Beaconsfield. He died suddenly at Beaconsfield on Saturday last in his 67th year.

(The Times, Tuesday 10th December, 1895)
