

The King's Arms, Downton

FREEHOLD PUBLIC HOUSE, DOWNTON

TO be SOLD by PRIVATE CONTRACT,

All that well-accustomed FREEHOLD PUBLIC HOUSE, known by the name or sign of the KING'S ARMS, with the coach-house, stables, brewhouse, cellars, yard, garden, and premises thereto belonging, situate in Downton, in the county of Wilts, and now in the occupation of Mr. Philip Whittle, under a lease granted to him by the proprietor, for a term of years, of which about three years and a quarter are unexpired.

– To view the premises apply to the tenant, and to treat and for further particulars (free of postage) to Mr. Coombs, solicitor, Close, Sarum.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 29 May 1826