

Anzac Day

AUSTRALIAN GRAVES

To The Editor of The ARGUS

Sir, - Miss Partridge, Warminster, England, writes that she visited Sutton Veny churchyard on Anzac Day, and found each Australian soldier's grave had a bunch of flowers on it. It may interest your readers who have friends buried in Bulford and Durrington cemeteries (Salisbury Plain) to know that the Australians' graves there also each had a bunch of flowers on Anzac Day. – Yours, &c. E. G. NEWBERY

36 Burnett Street, St. Kilda, June 13.

(The Argus, Melbourne, Victoria – Thursday 17 June, 1920)
