

SOUTH WILTSHIRE
CORONER'S INQUESTS

Durrington

Sidney Spreadling 6th September, 1854

9 year old boy Drowns while Fishing

An inquest was held by Mr Wilson, on Wednesday, the 6th inst., at Durrington, on the body of Sidney Spreadling, a little boy, aged nine years, who was found drowned in the river at the bottom of his father's garden, on the preceding day, into which he was supposed to have fallen whilst fishing.

Verdict – "Found drowned."

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Saturday – 9 September, 1854)