

Durrington

In The News

STOLEN FOWL

Ernest Britton, on bail was indicted for stealing a fowl, the property of Mr J. R. Greig, at Durrington.- Mr Wyndham Slade prosecuted; Mr Collins defended.

The only question in the case was as to the identity of a fowl alleged to have been twice stolen from the prosecutor, and afterwards found at the prisoner's cottage.

The prisoner was acquitted.

(Wiltshire Independent, Thursday 2nd April, 1874)