Ernest Leslie GOODWIN

Ernest Leslie Goodwin was born on 16th February, 1885 in Kingsland, Herefordshire, England. His birth was registered in March quarter, 1885 in the district of Leominster, Herefordshire.

The 1891 England Census listed Ernest Goodwin as a 6 year old living at Lawton Cobnash, Kingsland with his grandparents – James Goodwin (aged 59, Labourer) & Jemima Goodwin (aged 50). Four of James & Jemima's children were also recorded – Thomas Goodwin (aged 18, Mason's Labourer), Kate Goodwin (aged 26), John W. Goodwin (aged 11, Scholar) & Benjamin Goodwin (aged 7, Scholar). Alice Goodwin (aged 9), granddaughter of James & Jemima was also recorded.

The 1901 England Census recorded Ernest Goodwin as a 16 year old Draper's Assistant living at 422 Wandsworth Road, Clapham, London living with Sylvina Goodwin (aged 40, Draper, Shopkeeper), Emily Daw (aged 29, Milliner) & Annie Sproules (aged 21, General Servant). No relationship is recorded between Sylvina & Ernest (possibly his mother – refer to CWGC details below).

Mr Ernest Goodwin, Draper, aged 25, was a passenger on the Runic, which departed Liverpool, England on 12th February, 1910 & was bound for Australia. The Runic arrived in the port of Sydney, Australia on 26th March, 1910. (Information from the Roll of Honour (which was completed by family members of deceased soldiers) completed by Ernest's mother states that Ernest came to Australia at the age of 25 & his occupation was a Draper).

Ernest Leslie Goodwin was a 30 year old, single, Designer & Salesman for David Jones Ltd from "Marathon" 145 Queen St, Woollahra, Sydney, New South Wales when he enlisted on 5th August, 1915 with the 5th Infantry Brigade, 19th Infantry Battalion, 6th Reinforcements of the Australian Army (A.I.F.). His religion was Church of England & his next of kin was listed as his mother – Mrs J. Goodwin of Kingsland, Hereford, England

On the application form for a Commission in the A.I.F., Ernest Leslie Goodwin stated he had 6 months Rifle Club experience. Ernest Leslie Goodwin was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on 16th September, 1915 & gazetted.

Lieutenant Ernest Leslie Goodwin embarked from Sydney on HMAT Euripides (A14) on 2nd November, 1915.

On 19th November, 1916 Second Lieutenant Ernest Leslie Goodwin was one of three officers to be recommended for Mentions in Despatches. On 10th December, 1916 Second Lieutenant Ernest Leslie Goodwin of 19th Battalion was one of three officers to be mentioned in Despatches – "These Officers have served as Q.M.'s of Training Battalions in Egypt and since arrival in England in June last. They have all done excellent work in a department which necessitates the greatest efficiency to prevent losses. They have successfully equipped over 10,000 reinforcements from this Group since June and done all work very efficiently. They are now detailed to remain with the Training Battalions for a further term and thus prevented from going overseas.” On 24th February, 1917, 2nd Lieutenant was mentioned for valuable services rendered in connection with the War.

Reinforcements were only given basic training in Australia. Training was completed in training units in England. Some of these were located in the Salisbury Plain & surrounding areas in the county of Wiltshire. Second Lieutenant Ernest Leslie Goodwin was appointed to 5th Infantry Training Battalion, Staff, Camp 7, Rollestone, Wiltshire.

Second Lieutenant Ernest Leslie Goodwin was admitted to Fargo Military Hospital on 20th February, 1917 with Bronchitis. He was transferred to the Isolation Hospital at Tidworth on 25th February, 1917.

Second Lieutenant Ernest Leslie Goodwin died at 9.15 p.m. on 10th March, 1917 at Lucknow Isolation Hospital, Tidworth of Bronchitis.

A death for Ernest L. Goodwin, aged 32, was registered in the March quarter, 1917 in the district of Pewsey, Wiltshire.

The Red Cross Wounded & Missing File for Lieutenant Ernest Leslie Goodwin contains 3 letters:

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at Durrington War Graves Cemetery. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Lieutenant E. L. Goodwin does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
