Durrington is a village 2 miles north-west from Amesbury, and 10 miles north-west from Salisbury, in Amesbury hundred and union, Salisbury county court district, diocese and archdeaconry of Salisbury, and deanery of Amesbury, South Wilts, on the river Avon. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £130, in the gift of the Dean and Chapter of Winchester; the Rev. Richard Webb, M.A., is the incumbent, and is also rector of Milston. The church of All Saints was rebuilt in 1851, with the exception of the tower, which is Perpendicular; the remainder is in the early English style. A Norman arcade has been retained. The register dates from 1591.

There is a parochial school, supported by voluntary contributions and a chapel for Independents.

In 1851 the population was 477; the acreage 2,682.

The manor is held by the Warden and Fellows of Winchester College.
