

East Knoyle Man Missing

About a fortnight since an old gentleman, named Charles Ford, 82 years of age, and of weak intellect, left his home at East Knoyle, Wilts, and, to the great alarm of his friends and relations, has not since returned. He has been heard of at Mere, Frome, and Radstock, and at which latter place he was seen on 11th instant, but no further tidings have yet been learned respecting him. He had on a black hat, black lapelled coat, dark trousers and leathern gaiters over. He is about six feet in height, but rather stoops. He has grey hair and is very deaf. A placard has been issued stating that information respecting him will be thankfully received by Mr. J. Snook of East Knoyle.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal, Saturday, 22 October 1842