

A typical thatched dwelling used as a grocers and bakery

Serious Fire

A serious fire took place on the premises of Mr. Walter Howse, baker and grocer, which did considerable damage. It is surmised that the fire must have originated in the bakehouse. The house and shop being thatched, the flames spread with great rapidity and, before the furniture and stock could be removed, the premises were practically burnt out.

Western Gazette Friday 1st September 1899