

Typical Victorian Schoolroom

Prize Giving at British School, Fisherton

On Tuesday there was a public examination of the pupils attending this school. The chair was taken by Mr. John Keynes, and there was a goodly number of the parents of the children present. The examination was conducted by Mr. Tuck, the master of the school, and the proficiency in many elementary branches of knowledge exhibited by the scholars was very gratifying. The prizes to the successful candidates were distributed by the chairman, and the proceedings passed off in a very satisfactory manner.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal and General Advertiser, 21 December 1872