

The former Bull Inn at Fisherton

THE BULL INN, FISHERTON

JAMES WEST returns his best thanks to his Friends and the Public in general for the support he has so long received at the above old-established INN, and having retired from Business, begs to recommend to their Notice as his Successor, MR. EDWARD VINCENT SHEPPARD, convinced that every exertion will be made on his part to render himself worthy of their patronage and support.

EDWARD VINCENT SHEPPARD, in succeeding to the above old-established BUSINESS, begs to assure his Friends, the frequenters of the INN, and the Public at large, that it shall be in his unremitting endeavour, by offering the best Accommodation, selling the most approved Articles, and an anxious desire to oblige, to render himself worthy of their Patronage and Support.

Excellent HOME-BREWED BEER; and the most approved FOREIGN WINES and SPIRITS.
– Lock-up Stabling. – Well-aired Beds.

FISHERTON, Oct. 10, 1835

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 12 October 1835