

Trade News

Fisherton Anger

JOHN MILDRED, Leather-Dresser, at the new-erected Leather-Mills in Fisherton, near Salisbury, begs leave to acquaint all Glovers, Breeches-Makers, and Shop-Keepers, &c. that he has great choice of rough and grounded Shammy Leather; with Linings taken down in the best manner; as also Buck, Doe, and Taw Leather, where they may be supplied Wholesale or Retail as cheap as in Bristol or elsewhere.

N.B. By whom is dressed Buck, Doe, or Sheep, is the best manner, for any person, by sending them to the said Mills.

The Salisbury Journal, 3 January 1763, Page 3 Col. 2