Fisherton Delamere

Fisherton De La Mere is a parish and village, situated on the Wylde, in the Southern division of the county, Wilton union, Warminster hundred, Salisbury county court district, diocese and archdeaconry, and Wylde rural deanery, 4 miles south-east from Heytesbury, 12 west from Salisbury and 106 from London by road .

The church of St Nicholas, except the tower and chancel, was rebuilt in 1833, and a chancel, in the Early English style, was added, in place of the original, in 1862. It has a square tower, with pinnacles at the angles, containing 5 bells. The register dates from the year 1561. The living is a vicarage, yearly value about £130, with 22 acres of glebe land, in the gift of John Davis, esq., and held by the Rev. William George Nisbett Fenwick, M.A., of Trinity College, Dublin.

John Davis, esq., is lord of the manor of Fisherton, and with Joseph D Willis, esq., the principal landowners.

The soil is light loam; subsoil, chalk and flint. The chief crops are wheat, oats and barley.

The area is 2,861 acres; gross estimated rental, £2,813; rateable value, £2,516; and the population in 1871 was 324.

Bapton is a hamlet, 1 mile south-west.
