

ACCIDENTS

Fittleton 1800-1899

1824

As Mr. Hitchcock of Fittleton was on Tuesday last riding through one of his fields, his horse took fright at a heap of stones, and threw him; Mr. H. pitched upon his head, and received severe injury; he was conveyed home senseless; medical aid was soon obtained, and he is now in a fair way of recovery.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 30 December 1824