

Parish Church News

Fittleton 1850-1899

1855

It may be interesting to our readers in this neighbourhood to know that the Rev. T. Pearse, BD, Fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford, and Chaplain to the Baroness North, has been offered the Rectory of Fittleton, Wilts. Oxford Journal Saturday 10 February 1855

1867

On Friday the 13th inst, a Harvest Thanksgiving Service was held in Fittleton Church, and after a sermon by the rector from Psalm xxiv 1, "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the works, and they that dwell therein", a collection was made in behalf of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, amounting to £2 9s 6d. Salisbury and Winchester Journal Saturday 21 September 1867

1885

Preferment: Curate of Fittleton, Marlborough, Rev. William Jenkins, vicar of Dylife. Morning Post Thursday 10 September 1885

1886

The Rev. Walter H. Kewley, MA. Chaplain of Magdalen College, and Vicar of Oakley, Bucks, formerly Curate of Headington, has been presented by the President and Fellows of Magdalen College to the Rectory of Fittleton, Wilts. The value of the living is £510 per annum, with Rectory House. Oxford Journal Saturday 17 April 1886

The Rev. J. L. E. Hoppell, Curate-in-Charge of Fittleton Wilts; Curate of Kentish Town. Exeter and Plymouth Gazette Friday 2 July 1886

1892

The Bishop of Salisbury has licensed the following gentlemen to curacies: The Rev. Arthur Krauss to Fittleton. Hampshire Advertiser Saturday 5 November 1892

1893

The Rev. Arthur Krauss, curate of Fittleton, Wilts, and formerly as assistant curate at Parkstone, has been offered, and has accepted, the living of Martinstown (otherwise Winterborne St. Martin), of which Mr. Middleton is the patron. Western Gazette Friday 7 July 1893

1896

Preferments and Appointments. Rev. Walter Hercules Kewley, MA, rector of Fittleton, Wilts; rural dean of Enford Portion. Liverpool Mercury Friday 20 November 1896