

TO be SOLD by AUCTION, (if not disposed of by private contract) on Monday the 24th of July inst. at the Red Lion Inn, in Netherhaven,

A FREEHOLD ESTATE, situate in Hackleston, in the county of Wilts; consisting of 16 acres of arable land, lying in some of the best parts of the tenantry fields, together with 39 sheep leaze, and three cow leaze, on a very good down and common.

The purchase of the estate to have the crop on the ground, to be valued by two persons.

For particulars apply to William Coster, of Hackleston, or Henry Reeves, of Fittleton, who will shew (sic.) the estate, and make an agreement for the same.

Salisbury & Winchester Gazette, 3 July 1780