

Barn at Haxton Manor Farm

To be sold by auction

A valuable and very desirable freehold estate called
HAXTON MANOR FARM.

Situated in the parish of Fittleton in the county of Wilts, and near the several market towns of Andover, Salisbury, Lavington, Devises, and Marlborough; consisting of a convenient Farmhouse, with Barns, Stables and other suitable Outbuildings, Yards, Gardens, Orchards, and several pieces of Meadow and Pasture Land its complete enclosures and contiguous with the House.

Containing Three Hundred and Fifty Acres with Five Hundred and Fifty Acres of Downland in the occupation of Mr John Pyke, on Lease, which expires in 1797, at an old very low net rent of Two Hundred and Forty Pounds, capable of considerable improvement (further information is illegible).

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 26 May 1796