

Garsdon Coronation Photograph

I recently came across a photograph entitled 'Garsdon Coronation' on a well-known auction site and successfully bid on the item as my family has strong connections with the village.

There are definitely family likenesses but no positive identifications.

Although I cannot be certain, the clothing worn does suggest that this is the 1911 Coronation celebration of George V rather than Edward VII in 1902.

Unfortunately the photograph does not scan particularly well, but I am more than happy to send an electronic copy to anyone who e-mails me at gordon@gordonlewis.co.uk

I would also be happy to hear from anyone who can identify those pictured, especially people with the surnames LEWIS, HATTON, STUMP and TILLING.

This is the original sepia copy which has been scanned ©Gordon Lewis 2014

This is the black and white enhanced copy which is a little sharper. ©Gordon Lewis 2014