

Bladud Buildings, Bath

Her Car Ran Away

Wilts Woman Motorist Fined At Bath

Shopping at Bath on July 19th, Miss Mary Elizabeth Fuller, of Great Chalfield, Melksham, left her car in Bladud Buildings and entered a shop.

While in there someone told her that the car had run away. Running out she found that it had travelled backwards across the top of Broad Street and crashed into the railings of the hotel on the corner.

The sequel was a summons against her for leaving the car without properly setting the brake.

At Bath Police Court on Saturday Miss Fuller, who was fined £1, said that she had put the brake on, but could not have applied it fully.

Bath Chronicle 4 September 1937