The Patronage was in the hands of the Maltravers family and their heirs until 1578 and later the families of the Yewe and Jason [.....] until 1704 when it was acquired by Exeter College, Oxford, who first presented in 1728.

The board is placed here by John Les[.....] (possibly Osborne or Ogborne) (Churchwarden 1913-1923) in grateful memory of his wife, Edith Maude and in token for their love of the place.
