

Bell Ringers and Church Workers Dinner

On Monday evening the bell ringers and Church workers were entertained to supper at the Royal Oak by the rector, the Rev. F. W. Macdonald. There were present in addition to the Rector, Messrs. H. C. Martin, H. Lever, W. Hatfield, S. Plowman, J. Diaper, E. Hunt, H. Newton, H. Simper, W. Snook, T. Davies, T. Matthews, G. Down, and T. Smith.

The Rector proposed "The King" and followed with "The Army and Navy", to which Mr. Lever responded. Mr. Martin gave the "Bell Ringers," and Mr. H. Newton responded.

Mr. Snook proposed "The Choir" to which Mr. Diaper replied.

The Rector proposed "The Organist" in felicitous terms to which Mr. Plowman replied.

Mr. Hatfield gave "The Churchwardens, Sidesmen and Clerk," and to this the Churchwarden, Mr. Lever, responded.

Mr. Hatfield now proposed "The Chairman," and this was received with cheers. The Chairman responded feelingly.

Songs were sung by Messrs. Hatfield, Lever, Smith, J. Petty, T. Matthews, J. Diaper, etc., and a most pleasant evening was spent.

Salisbury Times, 14 February 1902