Benefit Society

As usual the members of the local Benefit Society had their annual gathering on Whit-Monday. The proceedings of the day commenced by the members assembling at the Barn, at 10.30 a.m., and, headed by the Fisherton House Band, under the leadership of Mr. Castle, marching to the church, where a sermon, suiting the occasion, was preached by the Rev. Mr. Hill. After the service, the members partook of an excellent repast, the Rev. Mr. Hill occupying the chair.

In the afternoon the band played a choice selection of music in a very admirable manner indeed; and at five o'clock they proceeded to the grounds of the Rectory, where dancing was indulged in until dusk.
