

WISHFORD SCHOOL, Feb 9th, 1828.

WANTED in the above Establishment, a FEMALE ASSISTANT, who well understands plain and fancy Needlework, to take charge of a Day School. No salary will be given, but great advantage for her own improvement in writing, arithmetic, &c.

Apply (if by letter, post paid) to Mr. Goulden, schoolmaster.

Mr. G. begs to inform his Friends that he takes a limited number of young Gentlemen, on liberal terms.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 11 February 1828