

Presentation by Pupils

Miss Daisy Wallis, was on Monday the recipient of a beautiful inlaid mahogany waiter, being a present from the school-children of Wishford on the occasion of her marriage. The gift was intended as an expression of affection and best wishes for a happy future.

Salisbury Times, Friday, 20 November 1903

OPC Note:

The 1901 census shows, living at Devizes Road, Stapleford, Marguerite Annie Wallis, occupation school teacher, aged 18, living with her parents.