

Runaway Horse

On Tuesday morning, a horse attached to a light break, belonging to Mr Thatcher, of Wishford, while standing unattended at the corner of Catherine-street, started off up the Canal, and dashed along the crowded thoroughfares at great speed. The progress of the animal was eventually arrested near the Wilton Arms Inn, on the Wilton-road. Fortunately no material injury was done.

Western Gazette, 8 October 1875