

Sunday School Childrens' Treats

On Christmas Day last, the children of the Wishford Sunday School, under the care of Mr. Goulden, received their annual treat of plum cake and ale, given them by the Clergyman and ladies and gentlemen of the parish; and on the 7th instant a similar treat was given them by the Clergyman's brother, Lieut. Williams, whose benevolence to the poor cannot be too highly applauded.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 15 January 1827