

Supper

On Thursday evening, the Rector gave a supper, to which the church wardens, choir, ringers and others connected with the church, were invited.

After the repast, songs and glees were given by the choir, all of which gave great satisfaction. Mr. Petty's song "The Fly is on the Turmuts," was loudly encored, and Mr. and Miss Goodall gave in very good style "What Fairy-like Music," which was also encored. All the singing was very good, and the company separated well pleased with their evening's entertainment.

Western Gazette, Friday, 10 January 1873