

Mr. James Thatcher and Miss Nellie Young

Marriage of Mr. James Thatcher and Miss Young

The marriage was solemnised at the parish church on Wednesday morning of Mr. James Thatcher, eldest son of Mr. Joseph Thatcher, Wishford, and Miss Nellie Young, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Young. The bride, who was married in a very pretty travelling dress, was given away by her father. In the absence of the rector, the Rev. W. A. Longlands officiated. The church bells were rung, and a reception was afterwards held at the residence of the bride's parents. The wedding presents included a handsome marble clock from the tradesmen of Wishford, a silver inkstand from the employees of Mr. and Mrs. Young, a silver epergne from the employees of Mr. Joseph Thatcher and Mr. James Thatcher, also a unique "Grovelly" tea service from Mr. Scott (secretary to the Oak Apple Club) and Mrs. Scott, and a case of "Apostle" spoons from Mr. L. L. Morse, M.P. The honeymoon is being spent on the Hampshire coast. The employees of Mr. Thatcher and Mr. Young were entertained at the Swan Inn on Monday evening, when the healths of the bridegroom and bride were heartily drunk, on the proposition of Mr. A. Scott. Mr. James Thatcher responded.

Salisbury Times, Friday, 28 June 1907