

Advertisements Placed in Newspapers Hankerton

CLOATLEY FARM, HANKERTON,
4 miles from Malmesbury.

TO be SOLD by AUCTION, by C. BLACKWELL, upon the premises, on TUESDAY the 7th day of February 1860, the whole of the valuable HERD of young
DAIRY COWS AND HEIFERS,
HORSES, SHEEP, PIGS, DAIRY UTENSILS,
And other Effects, the property of Mr. Richard Packer, who is leaving the farm at Lady-day :

Comprising 22 very neat dairy cows with calves, or early to calve, 6 two and three-year old heifers in good season, 6 yearling heifers, 1 stirk and a two-year old bull, 1 valuable cart mare, rising six years old and very powerful, 2 well-bred two-year-old cart colts, 7 down ewes in lamb, and 6 lambs, 9 fresh store pigs, (good pork), narrow-wheel waggon, 1 broad and 1 narrow-wheel carts, wood plough, drag, harrow, 1 set of trace and 1 set of thillers harness, leaf corn fan, 3 sieves, plough traces, ladders and hay knives, 2 cow cribs, hand chaff-box, 2 hog tubs, quantity of hedge-row faggots, &c.

In the Dairy is an excellent double-lever cheese-press, capital cheese tub and stand, curd mill, double and single why loads, pair of tin milk buckets and yoke, 4 milk tins, broad and trull cheese vats, 2 cider casks, &c., &c.

C. B. would observe with reference to the above Stock, that the Horned Cattle are very neat, coloury, and in early season; the Mare young and powerful; the Colts are well bred; the Dairy Utensils, though not numerous, are nearly new, and in excellent condition.

The Sale will begin with the Cows punctually at one o'clock.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 2 February 1860