

Advertisements Placed in Newspapers Hankerton

SALE OF A HANKERTON FARM.

At the King's Head Hotel, Cirencester, on Monday afternoon, Messrs. C. F. Moore, Allen, and Innocent offered for sale the Rookery Farm, Hankerton, Wilts., containing 104a. 1r. 30p., in the occupation of Mr. Joseph Chivers, at an annual rental of £160, which was sold to the tenant for £3,500, who gave £120 for the growing timber. Three enclosures of accommodation pasture land of 22a. known as West Leazes, at Hankerton, were withdrawn at £575.

CIRENCESTER COTTAGES.

Following the sale of the Hankerton farm, Messrs. Moore, Allen, and Innocent next submitted to public competition four freehold stone-built cottages at Chesterton, Cirencester. Two of the cottages let to Messrs. J. Cutler and F. Smith at rents amounting to £39 per annum, the landlord paying the rates, were purchased by Mr. Cutler, one of the tenants, the price paid being £540. Two similar cottages adjoining and let at the same rentals to Messrs. W. J. Strange and P. Le Maitre failed to find a purchaser, and were withdrawn at £475. The Hankerton property, as well as the cottages at Chesterton, belonged to the late Mr. J. M. White. Messrs. Mullings, Ellett, and Co., were the solicitors for the vendors.

Cheltenham Chronicle Saturday 5 March 1921