

County Club Fete

The members of the Hankerton branch of the Wiltshire Friendly Society held their annual fete on Thursday, in a field near the church, kindly placed at the disposal by Mr. Sisum. The weather was everything that could be desired. The members of the club, which numbers upwards of 40, had provided a capital tea, in a spacious tent kindly lent then by Mr. W. Powell, M.P. about 160 sat down to tea presided over by Mr. R. Kennett. Refreshments were provided on the ground by host Clement, of the Plough Inn, Crudwell. The Malmesbury brass band, under the direction of bandmaster Chappell, discoursed some excellent music during the day, and dancing was kept up with great spirit.

The Swindon Advertiser, 29 July 1878