

Market Place, Highworth

Dwelling and Drapers Shop to be Let

To be Let and entered on immediately - A good DWELLING HOUSE, with an excellent Linen and Woollen Draper's Shop in front, situate in the market place at Highworth: it has been upwards of forty years in the occupation of Mr. Angell who is retiring from business. For a view, apply to Mr. Ricketts, Highworth and for further particulars of the proprietor, Mr. Henry Coleman, Hannington near Highworth.

Jackson's Oxford Journal, Saturday, 22 April 1843