

To the STEWARDS of the HIGHWORTH BALL.

Swindon, Nov. 26, 1839

GENTLEMEN.

I am glad to see by last week's paper, that you are following the example of your Faringdon neighbours, and as friends to good fellowship, have in contemplation – a merry dance your little town is known to be one of the most sociable in the county, and no doubt you will muster a good party; but, gentlemen, in your advertisement, you omit to name, as is usual, what band you intend to patronise. As several neighbours, and myself, have on the two last occasions when we met you, been much disappointed with your music, we should like, before we join you again, to know by advertisement, whether you have engaged Weippert's Grimmatt's, or your own Town Band. - I am A Friend to your Party
