

Listed Buildings In Hindon

Baker's Arch

Location – High Street (west side), Hindon, Wiltshire

Grade II - Listed 6 January 1966

Baker's Arch, High Street with Lane leading to Says Cottages (Photo by Hindonite 2010)

Inn, now two houses either side of large entry. DB/1682/PB on stone tablet over entry.

Dressed limestone, tiled roof with fishscale tiles and brick stacks, coped verges. Two-storey, 7-window. Large through entry to left of centre has rounded corners to square opening, Baker's Arch to left has 12-pane flush sash and 2-light steel casement in blocked doorway, Nos 11 and 12 to right, now one house, have 3-light casement, half-glazed door, 4-pane sash and door with two fielded panels and flat wooden hood inserted into former mullioned window. First floor has three 2-light mullioned casements with hollow-chamfered surrounds and flat mullions to left, four 2-light casements to right with same surrounds but missing mullions. Two hipped dormers with 2-light casements to roof. Rear of Baker's Arch has 2-storey gabled wing with half-hipped roof, entrance now in this wing. No 12 has single storey lean-to extension and No 12 has C20 two-storey extension. First floor over rear of entry is tile-hung.

Interior of Nos 11 and 12 has two open fireplaces with ovolo-moulded stone surrounds, doors with 2 and 4 fielded panels and chamfered beams.

(British Listed Buildings)

