

Hindon

Hindon - George VI Post Box (Photo by Trish Steel 2008)

Surprise presentation to Hindon postman

During a break at Hindon's 4th annual Petanque doubles championship a surprise presentation was made to the village's much loved postman.

The Lamb Inn lawn on Saturday saw a presentation made by parish council chairman John Robinson to Dick Penson of a silver tankard to mark his retirement as village postman after 26 years service.

Mr Penson was playing in the Petanque championship village class.

(Salisbury Journal – 26 July, 2010)