

Crime and Punishment

Holt

WILTS LENT ASSIZES .

Anthony Cox, for burglary in the house of Robert Wiltshire, Holt, in the parish of Bradford, on 6th Dec [1831] and stealing a pair of stockings belonging to his son. The burglary was effected by taking out two large stones in the wall. Guilty. Sentence of death recorded. The Judge, however, intimated that the punishment would be lenient.

Hampshire Advertiser & Salisbury Guardian Royal Yacht Club Gazette, Southampton Town and County Herald, Isle of Wight Journal, Winchester Chronicle, and General Reporter (Southampton, England), Saturday, March 10, 1832; Issue 451. 19th Century British Library Newspapers: Par