

Holt

World War I Casualty Biographies

HURN, Thomas Henry

Thomas Henry Hurn was born at Holt towards the end of 1899, the 2nd son and youngest of 5 children. His father, Henry John Hurn had also been born at Holt in 1864 and was a leather dresser at the skin works. His mother, Ellen had been born 5 years prior to Henry at Trowbridge.

Thomas enlisted at Devizes but little else is known of his military career. He was killed in action on 5th November 1918, aged 19.

Thomas Henry Hurn was awarded:

Victory medal MGC/101 B112 9308

British medal MGC/101 B112 9308

He is buried at Cross Roads Cemetery, Fontaine-au-Bois.
Grave Ref. I.I.15

Thomas Henry Hurn, Private, 171722, 32nd Company Machine Gun Corps(Infantry)

References

Ancestry

Holt Village Hall