Bankruptcy of John Dear

Bankrupts ... John Dear, Homington, Wiltshire, carpenter. ...” Hampshire Chronicle 29 April 1811

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date at Westminster, the 17th day of April, 1811, awarded and issued forth against JOHN DEAR, of Homington, in the county of Wilts, Carpenter, having met on the 23d day of December instant, in order to declare a Dividend of the Estate and Effects of the said Bankrupt, pursuant to Notice for that purpose, given in the London Gazette, but finding that certain of the Creditors of the said John Dear were not able to substantiate their claims at that Meeting, and the Creditors present requesting that that the ordering of a Dividend should be adjourned; the Commissioners accordingly did adjourn the ordering of the said Dividend to Monday the 18th of January next, on which day the said Commissioners will meet, at the Spread Eagle Inn, in the city of New Sarum, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon of the same day, in order to make such a Dividend; when and where the Creditors, who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefits of the said Dividend, and all claims not then substantiated will be disallowed.
