

World War I Casualty Biographies

Sergeant Arthur Charles Flower

Sergeant Arthur Charles Flower, Service No: 9350. Died 16th November 1917, aged 24. He served with the 1st/5th Bn. Somerset Light Infantry. Buried at Deir El Belah War Cemetery, Grave ref: B. 110.

Son of George and Mary Jane Flower, of 143, Horningsham, Warminster, Wilts.

Western Gazette, 19 November 1915

The 1901 census has the family living in The Rank, Maiden Bradley, parents George, 52, a journeyman mason on estate, and Mary J. Flower, 49, their children, Henry, 25, a mason labourer, Elizabeth, 23, Albert, 20, a naval stoker, Matthew, 17, farm labourer, Frederick, 14, farm labourer, and Charles, 7.

In the 1911 Census, Arthur Charles Flower, 18, born in Maiden Bradley, Wilts, was a boarder living in Bournemouth.

Arthur Charles Flower was wounded in France, in 1915, and recovered, to return to fight in Israel /Palestine, where he was killed 16th November 1917.

Deir El Belah War Cemetery, Israel/Palestine, where Arthur Charles Flower is buried.