

Crime Reports

Horningsham 1800-1849

1843

Wilts Epiphany Sessions Ann Carpenter, Kitty Miller, and Jane Rowe, charged with having stolen one sack of potatoes, the property of George Dredge, at Horningsham. Guilty: 3 months imprisonment. Wiltshire Independent, 12 January 1843

Wilts Epiphany Sessions John Carpenter, charged with having received from Ann Carpenter, Kitty Miller, and Jane Rowe, one sack of potatoes, knowing the same to have been stolen. Guilty: 3 months imprisonment. Wiltshire Independent, 12 January 1843

1848

May 17, at Heytesbury, by the Rev. Mr. Knight, Vicar, Mr. John Thorne, of Horningsham, to Miss Bartlett, only daughter of Mr. James Bartlett, grocer of the former place. Wiltshire Independent, 18 May 1848