

Gelding

Stolen or Strayed Geldings

HUNGERFORD, Berks., May 29, 1800.

STOLEN or STRAYED, from Hungerford Down, on Saturday night the 24th instant, THREE GELDINGS, of the Nag kind, and following particular description:

A BLACK GELDING, four years old, about 15 hand high, a star on the forehead, two white heels behind, a little white on both fore feet, a white mark on the off side below the saddle place, has been nicked, and is rather of large bone.

A BAY GELDING, about 14 hands and a half high, has a scratch on one knee, swelled on the back, and a cut tail.

A BLACK AGED GELDING, about 14 hands high, saddle marked, the off heel white, and a cut tail. Whoever will give information of the above horses, to John Banister, of Hungerford, so that they may be recovered, shall, if strayed, receive a reward of Half a Guinea for each horse, with reasonable expences; and if stolen, Five Guineas, on conviction of the offender or offenders.

Reading Mercury, 2 June 1800