

Home Guard

Kington Langley Company July 1940

Finally designated as G Company.

Commander; Lieutenant Colonel Miles, M.C., late Officer Commanding 1st Royal Dragoons, until his death in 1943. Captain Soames then took over to the end.

Platoon	Commander			Approximate Number of Men	Notes
	Surname	Given Names	Title or Rank
Langley Burrell	Fairclough		Mr.		Took over from Captain Reid
Stanton	Jones		Mr.		Son of Mr. H. Jones who took over from his father and commanded until the end.
Stanton	Jones	H.	Mr.	30	Followed by his son to end.
Kington Langley	Kendzior		Mr.		Took over from Major Phillips
	Miles		Company Commander; Lieutenant Colonel, M.C.		Late Commanding Officer of the 1st Royal Dragoons; Died 1943; Captain Soames too over
Kington Langley	Phillips		Major	46	Followed by Mr. Kendzior, then Mr. Reeves to end.
Kington Langley	Reeves		Mr.		Took over from Mr. Kendzior
Langley Burrell	Reid		Captain	32	Late of the Royal Artillery; Followed by Mr. Fairclough then

					Mr. Short to end.
Langley Burrell	Short		Mr.		Took over from Mr. Fairclough and commanded to the end
	Soames		Company Commander; Captain		Took over in 1943 and commanded until end
Kington St. Michael	Soames		Lieutenant		Took over in 1942
Kington St. Michael	Thompson	Malcolm	Major	44	Taken over by Lt. Soames in 1942 when Major Thompson went as 2nd in Command, Company

Company Total - 152