

Emigration

Bremhill & Kingston St. Michael

Assisted Immigrant Passengers to Port Adelaide, South Australia, on the ship Chatham, arriving 1st July 1852.

Family name	First Name	Age	Occupation
Jones	Jacob	28	Agricultural Labourer	Wiltshire
	Mary (Pegler)	21

OPC Notes:

Marriage of Jacob Jones and Mary Pegler is recorded in the March Quarter of 1852 in the Chippenham Registration District

This is possibly Mary Pegler in the 1851 census:

The 1851 census shows Ann Pegler, 18, unmarried, who was born at Bremhill, living with her parents at Kingston St Michael. The parents were Benjamin Pegler a butcher and yeoman, with 200 acres, employing 8 labourers, and his wife Lydea, and younger brothers and sisters, Thomas, 16, Isaac, 14, Christopher, 13, George, 11, Louisa, 8, Benjamin, 3 and William, an infant.

It is believed that Mary/Ann is in fact Mary Ann Pegler
