

Crime Reports

Kingston St. Michael 1800-1849

1839

Fowl Robbery. A few nights since, the poultry-house of Mr. Granger, of Moreskul Farm, near Kingston St. Michael, was feloniously entered, and three geese stolen. The delinquents were traced to their homes, and warrants obtained for their apprehension, but in the interim they sought safety in flight.

Wiltshire Independent 28 November 1839