

Inquest Report on Charles Gough

INQUEST TAKEN BEFORE MR. WHITMARSH

And at Lacock, on the body of Charles Gough, 40 years of age. It appeared from the statement of the landlord of the George Inn of the same place, that in the afternoon on Monday last deceased was in the act of taking up some hot water into a bucket from a tub (whilst engaged in brewing), when he over-balanced himself and fell head foremost into the water. Deceased was extensively scalded, and died early the next morning. Verdict - Accidental.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, October 1 1846