

Celebrations

Landford

Celebrations After the Defeat of Napoleon

The happy event of peace was celebrated at Landford on Thursday the 7th inst. when after divine service the poor of the parish partook of a good dinner and plenty of good old English stingo, provided by subscription; the evening concluded by illuminations, bonfire, and brilliant fireworks.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 18 July 1814